SOUTH COAST

Maine in a nutshell—that's how a Maine visitor once described York County. For here in this "southern gateway to Maine" the state's traveling guest finds every form of natural advantage for vacationing, from world-famous beaches of sparkling white sand to lakes and hills and shore where people have settled for more than 300 years. Also included in this region are portions of Cumberland County as far north as Freeport and the state's most populous city, Portland.

ALFRED

THE OLDE BERRY INN — Listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Colonial house on the village green of a classic New England village surrounded by farmland, wooded hills, lakes and streams. A world away from summer crowds, yet only 25 minutes to Maine's famed rocky coast and sandy beaches. Cozy rooms, antiques, fireplaces. Hearty breakfast. Restaurants nearby. Non-smokers.

Rates: $35-40 single, $40 double.

The Olde Berry Inn, Kathe and Lloyd Gallegos, Innkeepers Kennebunk Road, Alfred Maine 04002. (207) 324-0603.

BIDDEFORD POOL

THE LODGE — Charming Down East home. Breathtaking views of Saco Bay. Excellent sailing, fishing and 5 minutes to private beach. 10 mile to Kennebunkport, 18 miles to Ogunquit, 20 miles to Portland. 4 rooms with shower and sink.

Rates: Upon request.

The Lodge, John Oddy, 19 Yates Street, Biddeford Pool, Maine 04006. (207) 284-7148.

CAPE NEDDICK

WESTERN LAKES AND MOUNTAINS

From the fertile, rolling countryside of the southern Sebago-Long Lake Region to northern Franklin County, this lake and stream studded part of the state is a four-season paradise. Fishing, hunting, hiking, canoeing, camping, and skiing are but a few of the many attractions which bring visitors back to this region. The twin cities of Lewiston and Auburn form the State's second-largest commercial, population, and travel center, while in the more rural, outlying areas are fertile orchards and farms, and small industries concerned with woodworking and paper products.
